The performance data quoted represent past performance; past performance may not be a reliable guide to future performance and does not guarantee future results.

The value of investments and any income will fluctuate and investors may not get back the full amount invested. Current tax levels and relief may change. Depending on individual circumstances, this may affect investment returns. Where the Fund's manager has expressed views and opinions, these may change. All performance data on this fact sheet are in Fund base currency. Changes in exchange rates may have an adverse effect on the value, price, or income of the product. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data quoted.

Performance is shown net of fees and does not take into account commissions and sales charges/costs that may be incurred on the issue and/or redemption of Fund shares.

The Russell 1000 Growth Index measures the performance of the large-cap growth segment of the U.S. equity universe. It includes those Russell 1000 companies with higher price-to-book ratios and higher forecasted growth values.

Index performance returns do not reflect any management fees, transaction costs or expenses. Indices are unmanaged and one cannot invest directly in an index.

Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses of the Fund carefully before investing. The prospectus and Key Investor Information Documents (KIID) contain this and other important information about the Fund. You can request a prospectus and/or KIID free of charge in either German or English by calling +1-353-1-483-2429, visiting delawareinvestments.com/UCITS, or by contacting your local agent at the details set out below. Investors should read the prospectus or KIID carefully before investing or sending money.

Important Risks

There are risks involved with the Fund, including loss of principal.

Because this Fund expects to hold a concentrated portfolio of a limited number of securities, the Fund's risk may be increased because each investment has a greater effect on the Fund's overall performance. We maintain a diversified portfolio representing a number of different industries, which helps to minimize the impact that any one industry could have on the portfolio.

Please refer to the prospectus for more detail regarding specific risk considerations.
